

News Release: May 9, 2016

Contact: Gretchen Ditto (805) 796-9270
or Chad Atkins (805) 616-4101

PAW WORKS HOLDS “TOURNAMUTT” GOLF CLASSIC TO SAVE ABANDONED ANIMALS

(Thousand Oaks, CA) – Paw Works, a non-profit animal rescue, will hold the first Paw Works Golf Classic – a “Tournamutt,” on Monday, May 16, 2016 at the prestigious North Ranch Country Club in Westlake Village.

“The Paw Works Golf Classic at North Ranch provides the chance to enjoy a great course and a whole day of wonderful food and refreshments, and to help unwanted animals in Ventura County find permanent homes,” said Chad Atkins, co-founder of Paw Works. “It’s also a nice way for companies to give back to some of their key clients or reward special employees with a day of fun. All proceeds from the event help give abandoned pets a second chance at life.”

The day-long “Tournamutt” includes golf, breakfast, lunch, cocktail reception, dinner, contests and an awards ceremony. Food and drink is sponsored by: Jeannine's Gourmet Food Hall, Poseidon Brewing Company, Figueroa Brewing Company, Mike's Hard Lemonade, and Land Rover Jaguar. Every player will walk away with a giveaway bag valued at more than $300.

Tickets Available Now

To purchase tickets as an individual or a foursome, please visit www.pwtournamutt.org or contact Chad Atkins at (805) 616-4101 or chad@pawworks.org.

About Paw Works

Paw Works is a non-profit animal rescue that partners with public shelters to give abandoned animals a second chance at life. The organization focuses on reducing animal overpopulation and abandonment through adoption and community education about responsible pet ownership, as well as offering free spay and neuter services for low-income pet owners. In just over two years, Paw Works has saved more than 1,800 abandoned animals and helped make Ventura County the state’s largest “No Kill” county.

Paw Works is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization. Tax ID# 46-4484336.

# #